

Prophetic Word: 'I Am About to Open Doors for Many'

Recently, very early in the morning, I was in a time of prayer. "I am about to open doors for so many people, but tell them to be ready."

God is about to open doors for many people. Not just one door, but many doors. However, the Lord is wanting us to make sure our hearts and minds are ready to receive these open doors. The Lord wants us to be fully ready when they open.

We must be prepared, in the right mindset and spiritually strong enough to walk through these doors when they open. We must get our emotions aligned and our spirits ready for the doors God is opening.

God is going to make a way where there seems to be no way. He is going to open up doors in such a grand fashion that you are going to be able to run through the doors at full speed. When you enter through the doors that are swung wide open for you, instantaneously, you will reflect back and understand why you spent so long in a wilderness and cave season. Every previous season will make sense in light of these open doors.

The reason God wants you to prepare before the doors are open is because the old you cannot enter into this new season. Your old way of thinking cannot handle these open doors. Your old way of doing things will not let you operate correctly in this new season of open doors.

One reason doors have not opened for you yet is because of the people beside you. Some of the people beside you right now cannot go through these open doors. It doesn't mean they're bad people, it just means these doors are not designed for them to walk through.

Some people, if you allow them to go with you through these open doors, will try to grab hold of you and keep you from the advancement God has for you.

Don't allow anyone, any mindset, any old habit or anything else to keep you from stepping into your open doors! You have been faithfully walking with the Lord through the hard times and through the great times, but they have all been leading up to this season. You are about to run full-speed ahead into your destiny. You are about to see doors open for you to walk through them! {eoa}
