

Prophetic Word: The Lord Is Saying in This Season, 'Whatever You Ask, I Will Do'

What if money and time were not an issue? What would you do?

That is a question I often ask in training sessions I give. But it is also a word about this season. I sense the Lord saying, "Whatever you ask, I will do." We know that is a biblical truth, but this season is special—different. The only limits on this season are what we put on it.

The Lord often speaks to me in real life scenarios, more so than dreams. I've had two such instances recently that reveal the importance of sight. What we can see we can possess in this season.

Seeing Half

Whenever something "weird" happens in my life, I've learned to ask if there is a deeper meaning. That happened this past week. I was having difficulty reading my computer screen. I picked up a book and experienced the same thing. The words were not clear. "Oh no! My vision has shifted," I thought to myself. I reached up to adjust my contact and immediately realized there was no contact in my "reading" eye. (One eye is corrected for reading and the other for distance.)

Now that was bizarre, because I distinctly remembered putting the contacts in that morning. I went to my contact case and sure enough, no contact was in it. But there was definitely not one in my eye either and none to be found anywhere near where I put it in. I've worn contacts for years and never had a contact just "disappear" like that.

"Are you trying to say something to me?" I asked the Lord as I dialed the optician to order a new one.

“Yes,” I sensed Him say. “You’re only seeing half.”

I also knew He meant more than just my ability to see at that particular moment. I was only seeing half. But half of what? What was I missing?

Switch Your Lens and See What He Sees

I continued to pray into that for the next week until I had another weird situation arise. After getting ready for the day, I went downstairs to make breakfast for my son and get him off to school. I looked at the clock, and it was blurry. By now, I had received the replacement contact and so both contacts were in my eyes. Yet the clock was blurry.

Oh brother! “You need to switch your lens,” I heard the Spirit speak to my heart. I went back upstairs and popped my contacts out and switched which eye they were in (yeah that hasn’t ever happened before either), and immediately my vision was clear again.

And that’s when I began to get it.

Later that day as I sat with Him, the realization of what He was speaking became even more clear and it is what I share with you now. This is a season like no other, but we must switch the lens we are viewing from to see what He sees. We must see things from His sight rather than our own. In order to see the full picture, not just half, we have to see what He sees.

He says, “Switch the lens from how you view things and see from My lens. Take the lid off. Whatsoever things you ask for, I will do. It’s simply up to you to ask. The only limits are what you put on this season. If you can see it, you can possess it. Come up higher and see from My perspective.”

We know this was true of Joshua and Caleb as they went as spies into the Promised Land. They saw the land the way God saw it—a land flowing with milk and honey. It was a good land, because God gives us good things. Yes, there were giants (there are always giants), but He was giving them an invitation to possess. Joshua and Caleb chose to see with His eyes. The rest of the spies saw from a natural point of view.

Possessing the land would be impossible. They didn't have we can fill in the blank there because, isn't that where we often stop? We don't have enough money, energy, knowledge, insight, power, overcome the giants standing in our way. But no matter what giant stands in your way, this is not the time to walk away.

As Far as You Can See and Beyond Is Yours

Then He led me to the following verses:

"The land you're about to enter is a land with hills and valleys, watered by rain from the sky. It is a land the Lord your God cares about. He watches over it all year long" (Deut. 11:11-12, GWT).

"very place where the soles of your feet tread will be yours. Your border will be from the wilderness to Lebanon, from the river, the River Euphrates, as far as the Sea" (Deut. 11:24, MEV).

Verse 24 casts the vision of the borders that surround His gift to the desert to Lebanon, from Euphrates River to the Mediterranean Sea. What He is saying is, "I'm giving this to you as far as you can see and beyond." That is His word to us in this season.

What can you see? What is He showing you in the eyes of the Spirit? Will you take hold of that dream and vision He has set before you? Or will you overlook it and say, "I wish, but there is no way."

For some it is a business (I truly sense there is much in the way of business He wants to do in this season to release wealth. If that is you, take hold of that now). For others a home or land, or new job, relationships restored or a dream that has been in your heart which He has brought back to the forefront.

Right now, He is breathing on things that have been dormant and blowing the breath of His Spirit into it. He is planting new vision in your heart and mind. You have woken up from sleep—seeing it or driving down the road and it passes through your mind. Don't let it slip away. He is planting those seeds for you to take hold of them. He is wanting us to stretch.

“Enlarge the place of your tent, and let them stretch out the curtains of your habitations; spare not, lengthen your cords, and strengthen your stakes. For you shall spread out to the right hand and to the left, and your descendants shall inherit the nations and make the desolate cities to be inhabited” (Isa. 43:2-3).

What would you do if money and time were not an issue? What dream and vision dances in your head and heart? What is the Lord speaking to you right now?

Don't let this season pass without taking hold of it. The only limits on this season are the ones we place on it. This is an invitation, and His hand is extended to us. He is calling us higher to see from His perspective—to all who are willing.
