

Prophetic Word: The Lord Says, 'Enough Is Enough!'

As a prophet, the events of my life oftentimes mirror what's on the heart of God. Like the prophets of old, God uses the life of a prophet to demonstrate His intentions and will upon the earth.

Due to this truth being displayed all throughout scripture, I believe I'm carrying a timely message for you at this hour.

"I have spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions; through the prophets I will bring destruction" (Hos. 12:10).

For the past two days I've heard the proclamation, "Enough is enough!" boom through the atmosphere. As Holy Spirit has resounded this phrase into my spirit; He even went as far as to display these words—enough is enough—onto an unexpected big screen media platform, to emphasize His guaranteed actions.

When the Spirit of God says—"Enough is enough!"—a display of His power is soon to follow. When the justice of God invades the earth, recompense and reparations through a divine intervention is imminent.

"God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes ... for the former things have passed away" (Rev. 21:4).

What's transpiring on the earth at this hour is the manifestation of the battle raging between light and darkness. This spiritual battle is being displayed upon the earth through our government, through people, through events, through our media platforms and through natural and spiritual experiences, being displayed in real-time circumstances. What we are seeing is an all-out war against our destiny! And, as I've mentioned in our previous newsletters, we are in a battle for our new authority!

Oppressive spirits (Jezebel, Leviathan, Python, anti-Christ, Delilah) are testing our endurance for the showdown of a lifetime. A separation of the wheat from the tares is blaring its process out in the open for all to behold. We are indeed in the Valley of Vision facing a multitude of decisions (Isa. 22; Joel 3:14)! However, the Spirit of God is saying, "Enough is enough!" for those suffering from the "insurrect" actions of wicked men. The justice of God is at a tipping point for altering destinies.

There's a Scripture verse that's been trumpeting through my spirit for over a year now—Romans 9:22-23:

"What if God, willing to show His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much patience the vessels of wrath prepared for destruction, in order to make known the riches of His glory on the vessels of mercy, which He previously prepared for glory."

I prophesy: What you have endured has come to an end! The Spirit of God is ushering out the tares from your midst with divine speed and power. The book of remembrance has been opened on your behalf. Where evil sinners have pursued your demise; the wealth of the wicked has been stored up for the righteous (see Prov. 13:21-22).

I decree and declare: Your valley of vision is turning into pools of revival. Where man has ridden over your head; the Spirit of God is bringing you out into an abundant place with the name of the Lord having been your strong tower (see Ps. 66:12).

I say to you: Enough is enough! God has intervened on your behalf. The riches of His glory are becoming manifest in your life. You are seeing the goodness of the Lord—in the land of the living!

"The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom, and their tongue speaks justice. The law of their God is in their heart; none of their steps will slip" (Ps. 37:30-31).

A Great Revealing Through a Rude Awakening for the Church

For the past several days, especially, I have felt the Spirit of God grieving over the condition of the church, the division in our nation and the plight of the world. As I experienced this grief grip my entire being, on several occasions, I saw in a vision, the heart of God weeping with tears over the earth.

This morning while I was once again overcome with the grief and sorrow of the Holy Spirit, I heard the Spirit of God drop this word into my heart:

"‘The war within the church is about to experience a rude awakening. What you call vile is precious to Me,’ says the Lord. ‘Enough is enough. #AGreatRevealingIsEmerging.’"

As the body of Christ, we talk a lot about those who call what is evil, good and what is vile, precious. But how often do we shine the light of truth on those calling what's good, evil and what's precious, worthless?

"Therefore thus says the Lord: If you return, then I will bring you back, and you shall stand before Me; and if you take out the precious from the worthless, you will be My spokesman. Let them return to you, but do not return to them" (Jer. 15:19).

"Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; who exchange darkness for light, and light for darkness; who exchange bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter" (Isa. 5:20).

A self-examination of the church is calling for a spirit of repentance for mirroring the ways of the world, while foregoing being replicates of Christ in a world in desperate need of the mercies of God (see Gal. 5:25). Somewhere along the way, a spirit of deception has anointed everyone into believing they are a watchman prophet sent to bring correction and warning to the earth.

Somewhere along the way we believe we have become the authority on how the heart of God beats on behalf of His anointed and subservient vessels. Somewhere along the way, we've validated a free pass of judging others without examining ourselves for perversion and sin first (see Matt. 7:5).

Although the Father is indeed cleansing the prophetic movement, His people and the church, how have we landed in a confused state of calling what's genuine, false, and what's pure, counterfeit—all in the name of the Lord? Scripture instructs us to test the spirits and to judge and weigh every word of prophecy; however, are you confident of recognizing the voice of the Lord for yourself?

The war within the church is drawing a dividing line between brothers and sisters in Christ due to the church lacking the ability to discern what's God and what's not. For all appearance's sake, our actions reflect a trigger response for judging the heart of others, based on fleshly emotions and carnal thinking. The false narrative and the voices of the false prophetic have the masses so confused through a spirit of persuasion, that people are throwing the baby out with the bath water per se, while labeling the pure in heart as counterfeit sources delivering contaminated goods.

A spirit of fear has confused the hearts of believers and has clouded their judgement from recognizing the genuine voice of God, apart from those intentionally sent to deceive, convince and tranquilize the masses to sleep.

In Galatians, Paul says, "You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? This persuasion does not come from Him who calls you. A little yeast leavens the whole batch" (Gal. 5:7-9).

I see a turning of the tables for those who have been falsely accused. I see a sweeping move of the Spirit cleaning out the swamp of accusations not only in the land, but in the church, for vindicating the pure in heart. I see the Spirit of God strengthening His bride with the spirit of might to endure to the end through the ancient of days.

I see Immanuel, God with us, advocating for this nation, through thick and thin, through the storms and through the turbulence, and to the end of the age. I see a new application of eye salve anointing the eyes of God's people for helping them properly discern the spirit of truth from the spirit of error. I see a unified bride heralding a message of truth, with love and correction, without fear, in the face of persecution and deception blanketing the earth. I see an arising of the least-likelies, the misunderstands, the underestimated and the 'looked-overs' like David, conquering the giants in the land for the saving of nations. I see a rude awakening captivating the hardened and embittered hearts of the earth, with the love of Christ, during the end-time harvest.

If the love and mercy of Christ is absent among the brothers and sisters in Christ in the church, how on earth do we expect to reach the world?

"Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm; for love is strong as death, passion fierce as the grave. Its fires of desire are as ardent flames, a most intense flame" (Song. 8:6). {eo}
