

Prophetic Word: The Lord Says, 'I Will Bring You Into Your Promises'

I was in a time of corporate worship, and the Lord spoke this to me: "I've brought you out; I've brought you through; and I'm about to bring you into." I believe this is exactly what God is doing for His people in this hour.

He has delivered us out of captivity, brought us through the fire and now, in this season, He is bringing many into their promises!

When God delivered the children of Israel out of captivity, He didn't just leave them in the wilderness. The Lord brought them out and brought them through the wilderness, so He could bring them into their promised land. I sense so strongly in my spirit that this is a season where many are about to be brought out of the wilderness and into the promise.

Many have been contending and standing in faith on the promises of God, and now you are about to see the things God has promised you with your own eyes and hold them in your hands! Your season of waiting for your breakthrough is coming to a close, and God will bring you into the promise! Get ready to cross over into all that God has for you.

The Lord is doing exactly what He promised in Isaiah 61:3, "To give them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He might be glorified."

You are about to receive beauty for ashes and the joy of the Lord instead of mourning and depression. The heaviness that has weighed you down for so long is being lifted off of your shoulders! When you step into the promise, you will experience victory. The things that were once hindering you and holding you back will not hinder you any longer.

You are about to step into a glorious season with God full of hope, breakthrough and fulfilled promises. Some have been distracted and confused by everything that has been going on in the natural all around them. But the Lord is breaking off confusion and bringing clarity to you.

Where you once were bogged down by worry, fear and anxiety, you will now have wisdom and revelation. Instead of being worried, you will be wise! God is peeling back His plans and purposes for you as you step into the promise.

Those who have been faithfully serving and standing with the Lord are about to take enemy territory to advance the kingdom of God. God is looking for those who will be bold forces for His kingdom to step into their promise and fulfill every assignment He has for them.

Those stepping into promise will be given the keys of the kingdom to unlock miracles, signs and wonders to impact their families, workplaces, cities and the nations. It's time for you to step into the promise with God! {eoa}
