

Prophetic Word: Trump Will Fulfill the Lord's Will for US, Israel

Humility and a willingness to share God's voice marked a recent prophetic word shared by Sadhu Sundar Selvaraj at Shekinah Worship Center in Lancaster, California. Selvaraj is the founder of Angel TV, a 24-hour Christian television network, and a pioneer missionary doing apostolic work with unreached people in Tibet.

Selvaraj started by saying, "I'm not here to tell you how to vote."

He said he felt pressed in his heart to share the word of knowledge he believes the Lord gave him regarding President Donald Trump and the upcoming election.

First of all, "Whoever sits in that chair deserves to be respected, deserves to be honored," Selvaraj said.

He continued, "I don't want to add in my own opinion or commentary here."

Selvaraj went on to say what the Lord Jesus said about President Trump: "'I love him. He is My servant.' And when the Lord Jesus spoke that, I saw tears coming down His eyes."

He clearly heard, "'He will fulfill My will for this nation, as well as for Israel.'"

Selvaraj also heard from the Lord on how Christians are to respond in this election season, how the secular media has caused Trump to "fight for his survival" and much more.
