

Rapper Trip Lee: We Will Struggle If We Believe God Will Always Heal Us

Christian rapper Trip Lee says that faith doesn't mean believing God will always do what you want Him to do. It means believing God is good, even when hard times come, as the Bible says.

"If we assume ... God will always heal us anytime we have faith, then we're going to struggle," Lee says. "But again, faith is believing that God is who He said He is, and will do what He said He would do. ... In this Word, we see God time and time again be nothing but gracious and holy and good and faithful. This is where we feed our faith."
