

‘Reckless’ Mask Mandate in Texas Sees Shocking Statistics

Texas Governor Greg Abbott announced in March that his state would no longer enforce a mask mandate, unleashing backlash on his bold move. Some called the act “reckless” and compared it to “Neanderthal’s thinking.”

The state has now reported the lowest COVID-19 case rate since March of 2020, leaving Texans celebrating. Watch this Charisma News Update for more information.

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.