

Rodney Howard-Browne: 'Trump Has All but Destroyed the New World Order'

Glenn Beck says that if Trump doesn't win, we are officially at the end of this country as we know it.

Evangelist Rodney Howard-Browne agrees but says the election "isn't going to go like they thought." After all, the 2016 election didn't go the way many people thought it would.

"When I saw the [2016] candidates lined up and I saw [Trump], the Lord said, 'My hand is on him. I'm going to use him like a wrecking ball, and he's going to win,'" Howard-Browne says. "And everybody said I was crazy."

He also says the radical left will do all they can to hinder Trump's presidential win in 2020 because it will hinder their globalist agenda.

"Angela Merkel said this just a few months ago: 'Trump has all but destroyed the New World Order,'" Howard-Browne says. "So this is why they are frantic to stop the agenda, because it's setting the New World Order back decades if [Trump] gets another four years."

Watch the video to learn more.