

Samuel Rodriguez Urges the Church Not to Give in to Spirit of Hyper-Tolerance

Samuel Rodriguez warned the church not to give in to hyper-tolerance and sacrifice spiritual truth on the altar of political correctness. He shared those remarks during a sermon this summer at the Church of God's 77th International General Assembly. Rodriguez says, "If you're a Christ-follower, you are more than a conqueror through Christ our Lord. We are not hyper sensitive. We are not victims. We are the light of the world."
