

A Meeting With God on an Airplane

Every Christian woman is called to be a living epistle, one who proclaims the love of Jesus to a spiritually blind people through her actions and attitude. Many of your family members and neighbors have no doubt come to faith in Christ by watching you. Continue to be a light in your community, on the job, at home and yes—on an airplane. You can't see them, but God knows who's looking at your life. Watch video below.
