

Scripture Clearly Tells Us 'We're at the End of an Age as We Know It'

Pastor Shane Warren says America is "at the end of an age as we know it."

Warren says Scripture tells us that when we see Jerusalem being built up, as it is with President Donald Trump and other leaders moving their embassies to the ancient city, then the Lord will appear in His glory.

And while gloom-and-doom prophets may lament the coming days, Warren says there is cause for rejoicing.
