

Security Camera Catches Miraculous Moment on Video

An apartment security camera caught a miraculous moment on video when a maintenance man entered an apartment and fell to the ground giving God praise because of what he saw when he entered the door.

Yasmyn Crespo was sitting at work when a notification popped up on her phone alerting her that someone had entered her home. "I checked the living room camera and once I did what you see in the video was happening live. It blessed me, it blessed all of my coworkers. We were just in shock. Those who weren't believers felt the Spirit of God moving," she said in a Charisma magazine interview.

In the video which has since been posted to TikTok and has garnered over 2.6 million views, the man notices a Bible verse of the day written on the wall. Crespo says she normally changes the verse each morning for a new day, but on that particular morning, the Holy Spirit stopped her in her tracks.

In the video, he falls to the ground saying "Hallelujah Jesus, Hallelujah God."

"His sister ended up figuring out that was her brother. Through that, she showed him the video and he reached out to me. He feels blessed that God has used this to touch so many lives," Crespo says.

The verse on the wall was Isaiah 25:1 which says, "O Lord, You are my God. I will exalt You, I will praise Your name, for You have done wonderful things; Your plans formed of old are faithfulness and truth."

Crespo says the minute he read the verse, everything he was carrying, his burdens, just completely fell off. God took everything he was carrying off of him in that miraculous moment.

Hebrews 4:12 says, "For the Word of God is alive, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, of joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intents of the heart." The Holy Spirit knew that exact verse was what that man needed at that moment.

"I only had one initial thing for this video, which was to show we serve a Living God. The second thing I wanted people to know is that as you look through the comments people who are not believers are feeling the Spirit of God through this video."

@yasmyncrespo I started to receive security alarm alerts on my cameras at home. What I saw when I checked the live video blessed my heart. The Lord is so amazing. As you start and move through your day, be tender to the voice of the Holy Spirit.

"We just don't know whose life the Holy Spirit is planning to touch. I was intending on erasing it because the time of the Scripture was up and it was time to put up another. Here we see the fruit of the Holy Spirit's work saying to me 'nope give it another day,'" she says.

Right before this happened Crespo was ready to take a break from ministry. She had faced countless uphill battles and was planning to step down. "I'm coming against all this warfare and I don't see the fruit. The day I decided this is how I'm going to quit, that's when I actively saw this happening live," she says.

Crespo encourages other believers to trust, abide, and be obedient to God. You never know how one small act of obedience can change your life and those around you forever.
