

Sid Roth Shares This Passover Revelation of Restoration

Sid Roth recently celebrated Passover on his show, Sid Roth's It's Supernatural!, during which he told the story of Pastor Stovall Weems. Weems reportedly received revelation from Jesus Christ during communion and was transformed by his encounter, seeing restoration take place throughout his church.

According to Roth, Weems told Jesus, "Yes, Jesus. You can go die for my sins now. In effect, I was sending Him to die for me, for my sins. My sins were putting our Lord to the cross. I don't know how to describe this feeling in words. In return I was pledging to give my life to Him in complete surrender."

Roth explains the full story in this video.
