

Souls, Priceless Souls!

(PART 1)

The Lord considers souls to be the most priceless treasure of all. His Word speaks of His unconditional love for the world. God is calling us not only to be mindful of our own salvation, but also to be sensitive to those around us—that we might encourage them in any way (by thought, word, or deed) to accept and follow Jesus.

READ: Matt. 28:19-20; John 1:12; 3:16-17; Rom. 6:16-18; Eph. 2:8-9,12-13; Titus 3:4-7.

HEART ISSUE: What are you doing these days in the service of Jesus Christ, the King of Kings? How are you speaking and acting to reflect the love of Jesus to others?

PRAYER FOCUS: Father, I thank You that I am Your vessel of encouragement and love. Each day help me to move in love and sensitivity toward others that they may see You in me and be blessed. Amen.

(PART 2)

We do not know when our last moments on Earth might be, nor do we know how close the end may be for someone else. Although some we encounter will not be ready to receive Jesus Christ at that moment, in displaying His love, we will have the awesome chance to plant a powerful seed that can lead to salvation.

READ: Ps. 68:20; John 1:29; John 4:7-29; 1 Cor. 7:23; Rev. 13:8; 1 Cor. 15:12-19.

HEART ISSUE: Give some time to ponder the many truths in God's Word that point to Jesus Christ as the only way to eternal life. Meditate on how special it is that, as a believer, you have the privilege of helping others come to know Christ as Savior.

PRAYER FOCUS: Father, You have called me to encourage, inspire and love others into Your eternal kingdom. Help me to give expression to the love of Jesus in a world that needs Him so much. Amen.

Read a companion article.