

Spirit-Filled Author Gives 7 Truths That Distinguish Jesus From Every Other Religious Leader

We celebrate Christmas each year, but many people don't acknowledge the Savior of all mankind: Jesus Christ. They happily acknowledge the holiday, but not the one it's all about.

The decision to repent of our sins and receive Jesus as our Lord and Savior is a precious gift that so many just brush off as insignificant.

Since hell is a place that's horrific and eternal, the decision to follow Jesus is not one to be shunned. Watch this video to find out how a non-decision for Christ is in fact a decision to reject Him.
