

Spring Cleaning for your Finances

(Part 1)

Spring is the perfect time to assess where you are regarding your finances. Are you surviving or thriving? God has wisdom for you in this area. Become a wise steward of the resources the Lord has given you, and you will prosper.

READ: Deut. 8:18; Prov. 27:24; Matt. 6:33; Luke 14:28-30; Luke 19:11-26; James 1:22.

HEART ISSUE: Are you splurging or hoarding? What are your areas of clutter or excess? Ask God to show you ways in which you can build wealth for His kingdom's sake.

PRAYER FOCUS: Father God, in the name of Jesus, thank You for giving me guidance on how to be a wise and obedient steward. I embrace Your will to prosper me. Bless me to be a blessing to the kingdom. Amen.

(Part 2)

Are you overspending and under saving? Make this a "launch week" for taking the necessary steps to improve your financial picture.

READ: Ps. 85:12; Prov. 22:3; Matt. 25:14-30; James 1:5; James 1:17; 3 John 2.

HEART ISSUE: This week, invest in yourself by taking time to learn (from books, articles and the Internet) how to build credit, wealth and a better financial picture for yourself.

PRAYER FOCUS: Thank You, Lord, for helping me build a better financial future for myself and my family. I know that with You all things are possible. With You there is always another chance and a better picture ahead for me. Amen.

Read a companion article.