

Standing With Miss California

✖ I know many of you have heard about the stance that Miss California took at the recent Miss USA contest. She said: “I believe that a marriage should be between a man and a woman. No offense to anybody out there, but that’s how I was raised.” Although she has been maligned by some, many in the Christian community have supported her. You can read an interesting article about it here.

Watch the video of her reception at the recent Dove awards and a video of her at The Rock Church in San Diego with pastor Miles McPherson.
