

Stephen Strang Tells CNN Trump Is a Changed Man Raised Up By God

On Wednesday morning's episode of New Day on CNN, Alisyn Camerota interviewed Stephen Strang, founder of Charisma Media and author of God and Donald Trump, about evangelical support for President Trump. During the interview, Strang said, "Millions of Christians were believing that the country was going in the wrong direction, and we prayed. We prayed, and God raised up a man that we didn't expect and that we didn't even like, but he has become our champion in a way that nobody else has." Watch the interview here.
