

Steven Furtick Just Dropped Some Serious Truth About This All-Too-Common Sin

Steven Furtick says you cannot prejudge who or how God can bless people. He says that's the sin of prejudice, and prejudice isn't limited to racial or socioeconomic divides. It comes anytime you sit in the judge's seat and step out of your proper role as a witness. Furtick says, "I'm not looking for a reason to be offended. I'm looking for a way to forgive." Watch him now.
