

Steven Furtick Responds to Paralyzing Grief: ‘Get Thee Behind Me, Satan!’

Pastor Steven Furtick says sometimes that paralyzing grief, sadness or stress can make us walk away from what we love. But he says the story of David—and how he recovered after the death of Absalom—shows us how to return from the brink of tragedy. Learn how to tell the devil “I’m back” with this inspiring teaching.