

Tap Into God's Unseen Power

When Moses stood at the Red Sea, the waters trembled and then parted (Ps. 77:16). When Jesus took His last breath, the temple shook; then the veil between God the Father and His children was ripped in two. When Paul was beaten in prison, the Lord sent a shaking to free him from his chains (Acts 16:26).

I'm here today to tell you to stop fearing the shaking. For this shaking that you're facing, aren't the winds and waves that beat you down in your past? The shaking you see now is the evidence of an unseen power waiting to be released over you.

You've grown a distaste for conflict and opposition but today, God the Father extends His hand and asks you this:

"Will you trust Me? Will you trust Me with your heart and life, My child? You seek and hunger after Me. You long to hear My voice and to know My way. But, My child, don't you know that you'll only truly know Me when you lay down your life to follow Me?

"For the hurts that have held you bondage hold you no more. I've sent a shaking into your midst that has removed them. I've taken away all the lies and obstacles that have distorted your vision. I've laid before you a new way and a path that you don't know yet. It doesn't lead to the wilderness – the place of spiritual death – or to Egypt – the land of flesh and sin. I lead you to the promised land, the path of your life that I've laid out before you.

"Put your striving to rest, My child. Don't fight against My hand but trust My shaking. For whatever isn't shaken is what I've given you. Surrender your heart and your life to Me, My child. Trust that I'll take care of it."

It doesn't take much for the Lord to break the chains before you but simply a willing heart and life that's dedicated to Him. I know that you've been feeling the barrenness in your life for some time. It's time to trust your Father to pour out His water on you. He's willing to give you all that you seek. He withholds none of it from you! He's just waiting for you.

It can be hard to trust the Lord, especially when your fears are louder than His voice. So, take some time this week to recognize the shaking in your life as a call to run to Him.

Are you having trouble hearing His voice? Then check out these episodes of the NextGen Prophets podcast for some answers.

- Prophetic Blitz Hearing God through Journaling
- Why the Prophet is on the Crest of the New Move

In the meantime, know that your Father cares about you and is making a way where there is none to reach you! Heed His voice and run after Him so that He can show you His ways.

To receive a word like this in your inbox daily, subscribe to our Daily Prophetic Word. {eoa}

Jessica Toach is a member of the NextGen Prophets team of Toach Ministries International. She serves alongside her husband as a pastor of their Fivefold Ministry Campus. She was raised in the work of the ministry and knew international travel from a very young age. As such, she brings both passion and perspective to those she ministers to.

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.