

The Afters Band Releases Brand-New Christmas Song: 'Joy Unto The World'

The Afters released a brand-new Christmas song, "Joy Unto The World," about Jesus being the Savior who was "long awaited." The Jewish people had prophecies about the Messiah, yet never expected to see those prophecies come to fruition the way they did.

"In a little town/ On lowly ground/ No one knew what was coming/ In a manger we would find our humble King"

To watch the entire lyric video about the true meaning of Christmas, click here.