

The Corruption of American Christianity and the Evil Agenda to Destroy America

Much of the information below is taken from the documentary movie Enemies Within The Church, to be released soon. Part 1 was published several months ago.

“And do not have fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness; instead, expose them. For it is shameful even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. But all things are exposed when they are revealed by the light, for everything that becomes visible is light.” (Eph. 5:11-13).

True Christians don't really fit into America's two-party system because it's too uneven. But we must do all we can to stand for truth, righteousness, and justice in this very evil day where all that is pure and decent is under assault. We must be enlightened to the extremely overt efforts to infiltrate and advance the liberal leftist anti-Christ agenda.

The reason their agenda seems to be advancing is because it is happening in what most people consider safe environments and Christian institutions. Their talking points are deceptive because they are dressed with Christian veneer. They are hijacking every aspect of our culture and pushing it toward socialism, but that has never been God's divine design and purpose for America.

The left operates through the “peace” movement, the “Black Lives Matter” movement, the women's movement, the labor movement and so forth, and they've infiltrated the church by dressing it up with Christian rhetoric for many years. I heard from a reliable source and also read that the communist-socialist agenda has been infiltrating the Roman Catholic church and the mainstream Lutheran and Episcopalian churches since the 1920s and 30s. But what is most shocking and disturbing is the heavy penetration into the evangelical churches over the last few years, including Southern Baptists, and as I stated in part 1, organizations like World Vision have also been co-opted by the leftist movement. What's interesting is that the left-wing Maoist press used to hate World Vision with a passion because of their highly conservative stance and evangelical Christian charity, but now they love them and are partnering with them. Hmmm.

Furthermore, within the Gospel Coalition and Southern Baptist Convention, there have been many findings of George Soros direct-linked funds and ties to people within these organizations. I know it's hard for some to believe, but doing your own research will prove this out. For example, Jim Wallis is one who is tied to him and has attempted to make homosexuality more acceptable and mainstream—all funded by Soros, an atheist. He is a complete evil menace to true Christianity, and churches should have nothing to do with him.

Of course, true Christians would say that they want nothing to do with Soros, but again what they don't understand is that the method Soros and his minions use is to utilize people that the Christian community knows, respects and trusts. Name recognition is a large part of their deception to subvert and co-opt people of faith.

Some professing Christians are interested in global warming, ending white privilege, supporting Black Lives Matter and more. What they fail to realize is these are all Marxist-type programs, and the word constructs they use have nothing to do with the gospel or the kingdom of God. This is how they are gradually moving these Christians and American voters to the left, which will end up destroying this country as we know it unless this process is reversed. Christians who apply their faith to their politics are the great barrier to the left, but that seems to be changing, as they are now the target.

The aforementioned names in part 1 like Tim Keller, Jim Wallis and others like Russell Moore and those associated with the Gospel Coalition are injecting 95% truth into the Christian camp, but it's the 5% rat poison that is slowly diminishing truth and power in the church. However, their pace has quickened since President Trump's election, and it's easy to see how they've ramped up and doubled down on their efforts. They've gotten more brazen, too and are getting away with much more, like telling Christians not to be political and that they don't need to be in a two party system. The more righteous votes they can take away from us the better it will serve their global socialist agenda.

The Bashing of True Conservatism

At the same time some of these socialist adherents bash conservative Christians in national newspapers like The New York Times and Washington Post. It's a left-wing movement that bashes true conservatives and glorifies their own liberal agenda while encouraging Christians to remain neutral. At this point, however, neutrality is sinful and a traitor to the highest cause of the gospel and the saving of the God-given sovereignty and purpose of our nation.

Dr. Russell Moore leads The Southern Baptist ERLC (Evangelical Religious Liberty Commission) that used to be much more conservative and reliable, but not anymore. For example, they conducted a meeting right before the 2018 mid-term elections on how to combat conservatism. People that are connected to Moore have written many anti-conservative articles and have made it cool and hip to be an anti-Christian conservative. Young pastors are coming out of seminary thinking it's cool to hate America and bash on conservatism. Hundreds of them listen to people like Moore and think he's great, but the truth is that Moore was actually once a staffer for a Democratic Congressman.

The point of this discussion is not to champion the Republican party for there are many RINOS (Republicans In Name Only) now in office who are not true conservatives nor Christians. It's not a matter of party but principle, truth, and righteous values. Christians must be enlightened as to the subversive un-Christian teaching that is going on to co-opt people into voting for a hidden liberal, global and socialist agenda or remaining neutral. That is the crime and one of the reasons for this article. Have you noticed how many professional sports teams are choosing not to visit the White House to be honored for their championships? They hate true conservatism, and they hate Trump.

Exposing the Lies and Deception

The people of the left are quite adept at co-opting and twisting language and terminology to make them mean something different. One of the things they are trying to do now is redefine what pro-life is. They're now saying that it doesn't mean you oppose abortion or the protection of the unborn, but that it is equivalent to taking care of the poor. I kid you not. I had a discussion recently on Facebook with a young, naive Christian woman who was saying the same thing.

To be pro-life now also means to care about climate change and the world we live in—to be concerned about the environment and so forth. This line of thinking is spreading, and it's one of the ways the Christian base is being neutralized. Homosexuality is also being redefined now as same-sex attracted Christians and not LBGT. This is another one of the liberal left's efforts to ramp up acceptance of homosexuality in churches.

There's a religious coup going on in the Southern Baptist ERLC. As I stated, they used to be one of the most conservative organizations but are being co-opted by the left and swinging that way.

It's not just the liberals who are doing this but others who are connected to hard-core Marxists and communists like Jim Wallis. You can trace these operations back to the Communist Party USA and the Democratic Socialists of America, who have people planted in high positions throughout many theological seminaries. There are also several black pastors who are members of the religious commission of the Communist Party USA.

There are others who are members of the National Council of Churches and the Russian Orthodox Church, which by the way, is a tool of the KGB. I know for many this might seem difficult to believe, because it runs pretty sinister and deep. But this is an organized Marxist program to pervert and corrupt American Christianity to take this nation down from the inside. Wolves have infiltrated Christianity and are baiting and luring God's people away from the truth of the gospel in order to destroy them.

Preachers are not only to preach the real gospel but courageously and aggressively defend it. And the only way to really do that is by exposing the lies and deception of the liberal leftist, global and socialist agenda. {eoa}
