

The Incredible Journey of God's Word to You

The Bible is the most important book ever written. And yet, preserving it for future generations came at great cost for many believers throughout the ages.

Hobby Lobby President Steve Green shared his extensive collection of Christian and Jewish artifacts and rare documents that chart this course, bringing his Verbum Domini (Latin for "Word of the Lord") exhibit to the Vatican City. Now you too can take a peek inside, reflecting on the sacrifices our spiritual forebears made so we could delight in God's Word today.
