

The Lord Wants to Reveal Himself to You on More Than Just Christmas and Easter

God amazes me.

We all get excited at Christmas when we celebrate Jesus' birth. Our Savior has come.

At Easter, we celebrate Jesus' death, burial and resurrection. Our sin debt was paid in full.

By making Jesus our Lord and Savior, we are on our way to seeing Jesus in heaven one day.

Are we enjoying His presence and love during the rest of the year? I love the good Lord sharing precious promises such as this one:

"I have loved you just as the Father has loved Me; remain in My love [and do not doubt My love for you]" (John 15:9, AMP).

Can you see Jesus with His presence wrapped around you wherever you are? Do you have a confidence in His love despite what is going on in your life? God loves you. I would invite you to often envision Him telling you that personally. There is a peace in knowing the good Lord wants to interact with each of us daily, not just when we get to heaven.

God is simply so much greater! As Christians, God wants to work in and through us. Will we let Him?

Enjoy these rich verses:

"I am giving you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, so you too are to love one another. By this everyone will know that you are My disciples, if you have love and unselfish concern for one another” (John 13:34-35).

God gives us the opportunity to make an eternal impact on those around us. We can touch their hearts by the words we speak or the kind deeds we do. We may see a broken world in many ways. It is my hope and prayer that we Christians are doing random acts of kindness each day that absolutely frustrate the devil and glorify the God who loves us immensely. I want to see as many people choosing Jesus as their Lord and Savior and growing with Him daily—where we love God and love people!

Over the upcoming weeks, I would like to invite you to spend some time with me in Bible study. We will be diving into sharing Jesus with those around us as well as growing with the Lord. We will be working from my two books, Heaven Bound and Walking The Talk. You can read along and listen to my recent episode of Loved Always on the Charisma Podcast Network.

My website, www.charisma.com, has links to purchase each book. Bring along your Bible as it is the foundation for any book I write to help believers. There are countless Scriptures in these books. We will only be able to touch the surface within this framework. I would like to make sure you have great resources that help you in your journey with the great God we love, serve and worship.

Please enjoy the verse of the day or leave a prayer request at www.charisma.com/voe.
