

When the Holy Spirit Gives You a New Song

✖ Chynna Phillips' mother and father were members of the successful singing group The Mamas and the Papas, and she herself achieved fame as a member of the pop sensation Wilson Phillips. Chynna went on to become a household name in the 1990s with such hits as "Hold On" and "You're in Love." But today the Spirit-filled singer sings for Jesus as a member in the new duo Chynna & Vaughan, with artist Vaughan Penn. The two share an encouraging message about God's power in an interview with The Buzz editor Leigh DeVore. Click below to listen to podcast.

{audio source_mp3=""}

download mp3