

The Proof of Real Character

When it's time to spring clean our homes, we empty out the closets, give away unwanted clothes, and sweep, mop and wash until the house looks and smells new. And so it is with the believer. The Father wants us to live authentic lives as modeled by His Son, and throughout our journey, He will do spiritual cleaning. It is during seasons of difficulty and God-appointed tests that we discover what is in us. Reputation is what we are on the outside, but the Holy Spirit reveals the true character of a person. Let evangelist Joyce L. Rodgers encourage you in times of character building. Listen to podcast below.

{audio source_mp3=""}
download mp3

 Joyce L. Rodgers is the founder of Primary Purpose Ministries in Dallas and the author of Fatal Distractions. To contact her or listen to other messages, click here. To purchase her book, click on the image.