

This Incredible Piano Cover of 'Oceans' Will Blow You Away

YoungMin You reimagined the hit worship song “Oceans (Where Feet May Fail)” as an orchestral, soundtrack-like piano piece in a recent video. The young pianist dragged his piano out to the middle of a frozen lake to play the song—possibly a homage to the Breakthrough trailer, which features a boy falling into an icy lake and prominent use of “Oceans” in its soundtrack. Regardless, the talent and artistry on display in this video will blow you away and make you fall in love with this popular song all over again. Watch it here.
