

Eschatology Expert: This Is the Center of Global End-Times Controversy

Joel Richardson says Jerusalem is at the center of the end-times controversy, and that's why we must continue to watch the city.

"The Lord has ordained that this city whereby his son would rule the nations from would be come a magnet of global controversy," the eschatology expert says on The Jim Bakker Show.

"And so Satan will gather all of the nations together against Jerusalem, and that's what we see right now."
