

This Overlooked Scripture Should Be Memorized as Much as John 3:16

Pastor Jerry Barnard, founding pastor and bishop of Horizon Church, says Romans 8:12-14 should be just as well-known by Christians as John 3:16. Romans 8:12-14 (NKJV) reads, "Therefore brethren, we are debtors—not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God."

Barnard says letting the Holy Spirit move within you is key to capturing the next great move of God.

"The greatest move of God is with people that will allow the power of the Holy Spirit to move through their life," Barnard says. "It's exploding, and it's getting ready to explode again. It's going to come among these young people, and among these seeker-friendly churches that are so hungry for God. They're there by the tens of thousands. And suddenly there's going to be a sound from heaven, and it's going to fill all the house or their city, and there's going to appear cloven tongues like as of fire. We're going to see a mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit like never before, because we're living in that glorious day."
