

Trump Receives Prophetic Word: 'I Am Giving Him a Second Win'

President Trump attended church at the International Church of Las Vegas (ICLV) while barnstorming through the West this weekend. During the service, he received a powerful prophetic word from Pastor Denise Goulet.

"We're going to ask God to remove evil from our nation," Pastor Denise said. "And we're going to decree for the glory of God to come in our nation ... Lord, be the wall of fire around the nation of the United States of America, and the glory within the wall. We forbid for the demonic plans of the enemy to come to pass, and we break forth the plans of God to make America great again, to bring righteousness and justice in our nation."

After her husband, Pastor Marc Goulet, introduced Trump as "family" because this was his third time to visit the church, Pastor Denise also greeted the president and said, "At 4:30 [this morning], the Lord said to me, 'I am going to give your president a second win.'"

"Now, this has three meanings: A win, you will be the president again. ... When an athlete is running a marathon, there's such a thing as a second wind. Where you come to a point where you have no energy ... and you feel like you have no strength. But all of a sudden, the lungs of this athlete have been trained at high altitudes, and because of that, the athlete is able to get so much energy, wins or at least finishes the marathon.

"This is what the Lord's saying. He says He has made your lungs, your body, your spirit, your strength—He has made it in such a way that you have been trained in such high-pressured places in the last four years, and even before that. And the Lord said, 'He is ready for the next four years, and I'm giving him a second win.' ...And there's also this: a second wind. If you add 'd,' it's the Holy Spirit."
