

Trump's Spirit-Filled Christmas Message Inspires Hearts to Remember True Season Meaning

True to his efforts to encourage everyone to celebrate the reason for the season, President Donald Trump has given most federal workers the full day off on Christmas Eve. This will be the third year the president has given workers extra time off during Christmas.

His 2020 Christmas address with the first lady likewise reminds listeners of the peace and hope found in our Savior's Christmas story.

"At Christmas, we give thanks to God, that God sent His only Son to die for us and to offer everlasting peace to all humanity," Trump said.
