

Unmasking the 'Culture of Death' Behind Rising Millennial Anti-Semitism

Author Joel Richardson says Anti-Semitism is becoming increasingly “fashionable” on college campuses and among young people, and he says that’s because Palestine is winning the information battle.

“They woo us with their victimhood,” Richardson says in a clip from The Jim Bakker Show. “They romance us with their victim mentality. And look, they know how to play the game. They know how to control the narrative much better than we do.”

Jonathan Bernis adds that Palestine and Israel’s enemies have created a “culture of death” in the region, while Israel only wants peace. Watch the video to hear Bernis and Richardson’s full remarks.
