Kamela's post also provides a powerful caption for people to follow along this prayer for favor and victory.

Thank You for a new month. I pray that You bless me in all that I do in July. May I find favor in the work of my hands, and may You advance me in the dreams and career path You've placed in my heart.

Remind me that You created me with purpose and intention. You planned things for me before I even knew them, and You are bringing them to life this month.

If you're believing God for breakthrough, don't let this moment pass you by. Let July be the month you partner with Him in prayer and step boldly into the victory He has prepared for you.
