

Viral Video Powerfully Proves How God's Love Can Drive out Spirit of Suicide, Depression

For King & Country's new single, "God Only Knows," covers God's love for the lonely and broken. The emotional new music video for the song applies that truth to a woman at the end of her rope and ready to commit suicide—and how the love of God and others can save victims from the brink. The video's garnered nearly 400,000 views in one week. Watch it here. (Possible trigger warning: This video non-graphically depicts an attempted suicide. Those sensitive to such material should exercise discretion.)