

Waiting for the Fulfillment of the Promise

When someone tells us “thus saith the Lord,” many of us hold on to every prophetic word, waiting for the fulfillment of the promise. But we must not wait passively; God wants to reveal Himself to us now in a fresh way. We want results, but He wants relationship. Let’s ask the Holy Spirit to infuse us with a passion to know the Father intimately, no matter how He brings about His will. Watch the video below.
