

Was This the Judgment of God? Chuck Pierce Prophecies

I wrote this on my Facebook page in the middle of the madness:

“Dear Job’s friends and false prophets: Please stop contacting me with all your theories on why ‘God’s judgment’ has been laid against AHOP. Stop partnering with the accuser of the brethren. It’s beyond ridiculous. If the partial wall collapse at the back of our building that displaced a woman with her infant was God’s judgment, He did a poor destruction job and hurt an innocent person while our property remains safe and sound and our ministry is accelerating.”

Was the collapse of our building God’s judging or God moving to expand us? Of course, we prayed for open doors and searched our hearts. There is no sin in the camp. And God’s judgment was not present... then we remembered Chuck Pierce’s prophecy from when he spoke at Awakening House of Prayer.
