

WATCH: ‘American Idol’ Contestant Prays With Judges After Emotional Performance of ‘You Say’

Singer “Just Sam” prayed with the American Idol judges after wowing them with her audition. “Heavenly Father, make my life brand new—right here, right now—with my friends and my new fam,” she prayed while the judges repeated after her. She started the audition singing “You Say” by Lauren Daigle but, crying, she wasn’t able to make it through the song.

Her grandma adopted and raised her, because her parents weren’t there for her. She makes a living by singing in the subway and taking donations from listeners. She grew up in the projects of New York. Her grandma says, “God is good. But at times, it’s really hard.”

To watch the entire video, click here.