

WATCH: Andrew Brunson Drops to His Knees, Lays Hands on Trump

Hours after landing in the United States after years behind bars and under house arrest in Turkey, missionary Andrew Brunson was praying.

He dropped to his knees in a press conference with Donald Trump and laid hands on the president.

“Lord God, I ask that You pour out Your Holy Spirit on President Trump,” Brunson prays. “Give him supernatural wisdom to accomplish all the plans you have for this country.”

Watch the video (at the six-minute mark) to see his full prayer.