

WATCH: Award-Winning Athlete Opens Up About the Moment Holy Spirit Caught His Attention

Dodgers pitcher Clayton Kershaw is the youngest player since 1985 to win the coveted Cy Young Award. But he's humble, cautious and knows where the glory goes. In a White Chair Film, Kershaw shares how he surrendered everything to God, and it's probably the last moment you'd expect—when he got drafted.