

WATCH: Billy Graham's Departure Released Gift After 20 Years

"Now that Billy Graham has gone to heaven, we can no longer leave it for him to evangelize. All of us must take up the responsibility and share our faith." –Anne Graham Lotz

After two decades, author and cultural commentator Larry Tomczak was given the go-ahead for a significant resource to be released to equip Christians to share their faith effectively after the death of Billy Graham. It is timely as Barna Research released a national survey revealing 51 percent of American churchgoers are unfamiliar with the term "Great Commission." This video explains and enables you to start your journey.