

WATCH: Chris Tomlin's 'Christmas Songs of Worship' Featuring We The Kingdom

Grammy Award winner Chris Tomlin will bring Christmas joy into homes everywhere with K-LOVE Christmas and Chris Tomlin Present: "Christmas Songs of Worship" Christmas special on Saturday, Dec. 12 at 8 p.m. CST.

Tomlin's "Miracle of Love" is written about the new baby girl his family is expecting this December. Recently Tomlin premiered the song's music video exclusively on Facebook, making him the first artist in the Christian genre to do so.

"So many Christmas traditions are going to look different this year for families around the world, but I am so grateful for the opportunity to create a new tradition together, made uniquely for 2020," Tomlin said in a press release.

The 90-minute full band, full production concert will be streamed on Stabal's global platform, a leader in the digital space with on-demand live performance and creative content.

The concert features guests like We The Kingdom and Pat Barrett. People are invited to experience the night once or opt in for a 30-day pass, which features bonus content. Tickets are available now at .

Watch "Miracle of Love" here.