50 HOURS: A MAPS Global Film

In the midst of war, ethnic hostility, and crisis, there is a story no one else is telling: the emergence of a joy-filled movement of worship across the Middle East. 50 HOURS follows our teams as they host a concert of prayer across multiple nations and unveils the stories of individuals and communities finding hope through life-changing encounters with Jesus.

Our Frontier Missions School is designed to train pioneering leaders in Prayer, Revival, and Frontier Missions. After a semester of training, students are placed on teams and sent together for 90 days into an unreached nation serving day and night prayer and evangelism at one of our bases in strategic cities in the Middle East.

Join us for our fall school starting in August 2020!
