

WATCH: Colton Dixon Releases New Song, 'Miracles'

In his new song "Miracles," former American Idol contestant Colton Dixon touches on the reality that there are some amazing things that happen in life for which we have no explanation. These things aren't coincidence; they have to be miraculous acts of God.

"How do miracles just happen like that? / ... Some will say it's magic / But I know that You did all that / You're the reason; there's no doubt."
