

WATCH: Gen. Flynn Makes Radical Move

The ReAwaken America Health and Freedom Tour continues to grow, not merely by attendance and the stellar marquee of speakers, but by demonstration of the heart. In a recent video promoting the Sept. 24-25 tour stop in Colorado Springs, Colorado, Flynn stated, "During those two days, we are going to create a scholarship fund for the 13 souls that were recently killed in Afghanistan. We will be running a master telethon for 48 hours, and our whole goal is to raise as much money as we can to give back to those families so they can create scholarships for the children, spouses and families that were left behind."

Not only America, but the entire world, has been aghast over the manner in which the Biden administration withdrew U.S. military from our involvement in support of the Afghanistan government, which resulted in the deaths of 13 U.S. service members supporting Operation Freedom's Sentinel. Eleven Marines, one Navy Corpsman and one soldier were "killed as the result of an enemy attack while supporting non-combatant evacuation operations," according to a press release from the Department of Defense published Aug. 28.

In honor of the selfless service men and women, their names are listed here. For the Marine Corps, the deceased are: Sgt. Johanny Rosario Pichardo, 25; Sgt. Nicole L. Gee, 23; Staff Sgt. Darin T. Hoover 31; Cpl. Hunter Lopez, 22; Cpl. Daegan W. Page, 23; Cpl. Humberto A. Sanchez, 22; Lance Cpl. David L. Espinoza, 20; Lance Cpl. Jared M. Schmitz, 20; Lance Cpl. Rylee J. McCollum, 20; Lance Cpl. Dylan R. Merola, 20; Lance Cpl. Kareem M. Nikoui, 20. For the Navy, the deceased is Navy Corpsman Maxton W. Soviak, 22. For the Army, the deceased is Staff Sgt. Ryan C. Knauss, 23.

Clay Clark, founder of the ReAwaken America Health and Freedom Tour, said, "When Gen. Flynn made the suggestion for us to coordinate a fundraiser for the families of the fallen soldiers, I didn't have to think twice. I had no idea of all the logistics required to coordinate a telethon, but I knew we'd find a way to do it."

"One America News is dedicated to supporting the members of our military, even if the Biden administration isn't," a spokesman for OneAmerica News said. "The brave men and women who died in Afghanistan deserve to be remembered, and OAN is proud to honor their memory in cooperation with the ReAwaken America Health and Freedom Tour. It's time to come together as a nation and recognize their service to our country, and to help their grieving families and loved ones who are left behind. The bravery of these 13 service members is their lasting legacy, and as Americans we owe them a debt that can never be repaid."

This event, like all that have preceded it, is sold out. However, the tour stops are always available by livestreaming, and the Colorado livestream will be available on One America News Network at [. "The purpose of the tour is to help Americans become informed with the truth for the sake of their health and freedoms,"

Clark explains. "A lot of what mainstream media and our government are promoting is simply not accurate. We need to make as many people as possible aware of the avenues for getting informed and engaged in our governmental process to make a difference, even if it's just to cast an informed vote."
