

WATCH: 'Heal Our Land' Proclaims Truth of Classic Verse

Contemporary worship artist Aaron Shust, who often travels with Will Graham in his evangelistic crusades, has become known for his Scripture-based lyrics.

He says this song, which he scheduled to highlight just as the world went on lockdown in March 2020, represents "the prayer of my heart today."

The lyrics, inspired by Solomon's prayer at the dedication of the temple in 2 Chronicles 7:14, should ring throughout all our hearts.

"Faithful Father, forgive us again/ Have mercy upon us, despite all our sin.

"For You are good, and Your love will last forever, forever/
For You are good, and Your love will last forever, forever."

Watch the video above or at this link, repent and join Shust in calling for true repentance and healing for our land. {eo}

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.