

WATCH: Holy Spirit Moves Through Crowd of 2000 Soldiers Praising 'Reckless Love' of God

The Holy Spirit fell on nearly 2,000 soldiers Easter morning at Doughboy Stadium in Ft. Benning, Georgia.

"It was fabulous day at Doughboy Stadium on Fort Benning as roughly 2,000 Army #Soldiers gathered together to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ," says Jenny Reese Clark, who published the video to YouTube. "As the words of the song 'Reckless Love' by Cory Asbury were sang, the Holy Spirit moved among the crowd not just encouraging the men and women present, but causing some to give their hearts to #Jesus for the very first time. #Hallelujah! There is nothing like "'the overwhelming, never-ending, reckless LOVE of GOD!'"

Watch the video to see for yourself.