

Watch My Interview on CTN for an Inside Look at Trump's Success With Evangelicals

I'm still promoting God and Donald Trump as I have opportunities. Recently, I went to the Christian Television Network in Fort Myers, Florida, and had a very interesting interview with Paul Lodato on his show, "Contending for the Faith."

The show will air at 6:30 p.m. EST on Friday, May 18. You can watch it on on Direct TV (channel 376), Dish Network (channel 267), Glory Star Satellite System (channel 117) or Thaicom 5 satellite, which covers 75 percent of the earth overseas. Or you can watch the interview from anywhere in the world on livestream at or . C-SPAN will also record the event for a later program.

I believe you'll be interested in watching this 30-minute interview. I told Paul I wanted to send out a newsletter about it to encourage those who are interested to tune in.

Paul is an impressive young man. He was hired in 2005 as the youngest general manager of the Christian Television Network, which established Florida's first Christian station in 1979. When Paul took the helm of CTN Southwest Florida, formerly known as WRXY-TV, he brought with him a vision to produce and broadcast innovative and engaging programming that provides viewers a message of hope while entertaining and educating the entire family.

Not only did he found Southwest Florida Film and Television Academy in 2014, but he is also well-established in the business community. In 2008, GulfShore Business magazine named him one of its "40 Under 40" individuals who have distinguished themselves in Business & their communities. He's often invited to speak about media/business to civic, nonprofit and church organizations.

But Paul doesn't confine his passions to the TV and business realm. He and his wife, Ivette, founded Light of the World Ministries to awaken, empower and equip the body of Jesus Christ to discern truth and win the lost. He's also an accomplished preacher, singer and worship leader.

I hope you'll tune in to my interview with Paul tomorrow. If you know anyone who would be interested in watching the show, make sure to send this newsletter to them!
