

Watch the Incredible Worship Light Show That Kicked Off Jentezen Franklin's Conference

The Forward Conference 2018, hosted at Jentezen Franklin's Free Chapel church, featured artists and speakers like Jesus Culture, Elevation Worship and Banning Liebscher. But the whole event kicked off with a surprisingly intimate light show, which asked participants to light up their phones in regard to spiritual needs in their lives. Then the really dramatic worship and lights began. Watch the video to see for yourself. Is this a great and innovative use of technology, or just a distraction from the Holy Spirit? Let us know what you think in the comments.