

WATCH: TRIBL Music, Harvest Bashta Perform New Song 'Palm of Your Hand'

TRIBL Music released a new song, "Palm of Your Hand," featuring Harvest Bashta, who helped write it. A song about trusting God's promises, it's sure to get your heart in the right place for worshipping our Savior. Bashta posted the following statement underneath the video:

Palm of Your Hand is based out of the scripture found in John 10:28. It says, "And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand." I had the chorus of the song for a while but never knew exactly what to do with it. At a Maverick City camp last year I was put in a group with Jaye Thomas, Alton Eugene, and Melody Hernandez and really felt like this was the group that would make the song come alive. It was true! The end result is an incredible mixture of truth and soul accompanied by an exhilarating spontaneous moment at the end that was icing on the cake. Palm of Your Hand will get stuck in your head I promise! Thankful for this group of writers that were willing to think outside the box. Should you play it on a Sunday morning or just play it in your car? Who knows! Just "stop, [breathe], and rest here in His goodness." ☐ – Harvest

To watch the entire live performance, click here.